Buyer Admission Policy & Guidelines

In an effort to maintain the integrity of the Tupelo Furniture Market, the following policies and guidelines have been placed to qualify members in the home furnishings industry. Admission is free and open to the home furnishings industry. These include retailers, wholesalers, distributors, import/exporters, catalog and interior designers (ASID, IDS or IDA).

Applicants must present the following information to qualify for market:

- (1) Resale or business license (proof you have an established business in the home furnishings industry). Company information must be clearly printed on documents; as well as, affiliated in the home furnishings industry.
- (2) Business card or cancelled payroll check for which the badge will be issued. Business cards deemed unacceptable will be denied.
- (3) Photo identification that matches resale license, business card or cancelled payroll check.

Exceptions: If the company information on the resale or business license is not affiliated with the home furnishings industry, applicant may present both of the following:

- (1) Advertising from newspaper showing store name, store hours, etc.
 - (2) Listing of home furnishings suppliers we can contact along with current invoices.
- The Tupelo Furniture Market reserves the right to deny admission to anyone.
 - In an effort to continue a professional atmosphere, strollers are not permitted and children under 12 are strongly discouraged from attending the show. Anyone with special circumstances should contact the Buyer Services at 662.842.4442 prior to market.
